CCIS 28th Annual Conference

Creating Sustainability in Education Abroad

Conference Hotel - The Mangroove

This year's CCIS 28th Annual Conference will take place in Costa Rica at the El Mangroove Hotel Resort in the beautiful Pacific coastal region of Guanacaste.

The Mangroove is located only 25-30 minutes away from Liberia International Airport and is ideally located on the beach near various National Parks and the artsy and bustling town of El Coco. Enjoy rafting, hiking, sailing, fishing, scuba diving, and snorkeling, amongst other activities, within a short distance from the resort.

The 28th Annual CCIS Conference will be held in Costa Rica at the El Mangroove Hotel in the beautiful coastal region of Guanacaste from Wednesday, February 28 to Friday, March 2, 2018. Optional site visits to two local host institutions and surrounding area will be available prior to the conference on Monday, February 26 and Tuesday, February 27, 2018 in San Jose, Costa Rica.
